These terms and conditions apply in addition to all other terms and conditions that the Richmond Virginia Fire Police Credit Union (RVFPCU) previously disclosed to me. If I fail to cancel this Authorization upon filing bankruptcy, RVFPCU is directed to make and apply the deduction in accordance with this Authorization. If a transfer applies to a loan or credit extension for which the payment may vary, I grant RVFPCU a power of attorney to increase or decrease the amount of my deduction to the payment amount due.

- Transfers will be made on the date(s) specified. If funds are insufficient to post a transfer, then the transfer will not be posted.
- Transfers scheduled for a day that is a RVFPCU holiday, weekend or when the credit union is closed due to inclement weather, will be posted on the first open business day thereafter.
- Transfers post only from the account specified above and only if the transfer would not exceed account limitations as set forth by the RVFPCU and/or any applicable law.
- RVFPCU must receive notice three (3) business days prior to the transfer date to cancel or to make any change to this Authorization.
- Funds transferred to an IRA are considered as deposits in the year the transfer posted.
- RVFPCU reserves the right to terminate your participation in this program.
